Headline:
Becoming dry overnight, sunshine and showers Monday.

Remaining showers should soon fade into the evening to leave a mainly dry night with clear spells. Breezy at first, however winds should progressively ease towards dawn. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Monday:
A fine start with sunny spells, with this eventually giving way to a more showery afternoon, perhaps with the odd one turning heavy with a risk of hail and thunder. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Probably becoming more settled in this period. Some showers remain possible, and perhaps some rain into Thursday, but drier and brighter weather should become more prevalent. Temperatures near normal.
